Strengthening the Industry Through Assurance and Advocacy

After an extremely challenging year for many families, beekeepers, businesses, industries, and the world, we are pleased to announce that we are planning to host the 87th Annual Alberta Beekeepers Commission Annual Conference & Trade Show event this year – in person – at the Fantasyland Hotel.

ABC Conference & Trade Show event November 25 & 26, 2021

As the world slowly starts move towards safely easing COVID-19 restrictions, we are looking ahead to this year's event and working towards welcoming back our beekeepers and valued industry supporters at our November Conference & Trade Show event.

This event is often viewed as one of the standout annual events on the beekeeping calendar by our producers, providing them with the opportunity to take a well-earned break after a busy season and the opportunity to connect with friends, other beekeepers, industry, and suppliers from across the province and the world.

Having said that, our event will be sure to look a little different this year. As we continue to navigate this evolving landscape, we want to let you know that we are working hard to create a great event for beekeepers and the industry, and we look forward to welcoming you in some capacity this year!

Sponsorship and Exhibitor Opportunities

Take advantage of both sponsorship and trade exhibitor opportunities (pending restrictions) at this year's Conference & Trade Show event.

Adjustments are being made to the trade show format/layout to support the health and safety of both exhibitors and beekeepers, with the Fantasyland Hotel and staff adhering to highest standards and protocols to ensure guests remain comfortable and safe. More specific information on the trade show logistics will be provided closer to the event.
